The Havana Film Festival New York (HFFNY) collaborates with Havana's International Festival of New Latin American Cinema to introduce prominent and emerging filmmakers by showcasing the latest award-winning films and classics from and about Latin America, the Caribbean and the U.S. Latino community. HFFNY cultivates audience-artist dialogue designed to give a behind-the-scenes look at an industry that continues to gain global recognition. The festival also offers directors, actors and producers an opportunity to exchange ideas and expand the vision of Latino culture.

HFFNY is a project of American Friends of the Ludwig Foundation of Cuba, a non-profit 501 (c) (3) organization building cultural bridges between the U.S. and Cuba through the arts.

Contributions are tax-deductible to the extent permitted by law
